

Outage/Turnaround Project Manager

Summary

Nelpro Project Solutions is pleased to offer an Outage/Turnaround Project Manager opportunity located in Lakeland, Florida. The preferred candidate will possess experience in Project Management within the Power Generation & Chemical Processing Industry.

Job Description

The intent of the Outage/Project Manager role is to provide Nelpro Project Solutions clients with a qualified and experienced Project Management Professional for their planned and forced Outage/Turnaround Projects. Professional project management principles and best practices are expected to be utilized in this role.

Responsibilities

The Project Manager candidate will work directly for and report to the President of Nelpro Project Solutions. Projects will be either in Chemical manufacturing or Power Generating facilities during planned or forced outage/turnaround projects. The chosen candidate will work directly with the assigned client's management/project team during all phases of project planning, execution and close out.

Qualifications

Education:

- Bachelor's degree in the following (preferred)
 - Engineering, Technology, Project Management or Business
- PMP Certification "Project Management Institute, Project Management Professional (preferred)

Experience:

- 7 plus years working in one of the following industries:
 - Power Generation
 - Chemical Processing
 - Manufacturing
 - Fabrication
 - Facility Maintenance/Operation
- 4 plus years of Project Management
- User/Familiarization with the following technologies:
 - Microsoft Office/Teams
 - Microsoft Excel
 - Project Management Scheduling Software
 - Maximo

Working Conditions/Location

The Outage/Turnaround Project Manager will be expected to work at either a Power Generation or Chemical Processing facility. The expected work environment is a mix of general office settings and field settings within the assigned facility. Remote/hybrid opportunities may be available within this role.

About Nelpro Project Solutions

Nelpro Project Solutions is a project management consulting agency based out of Lakeland, Florida. Currently, Nelpro Project Solutions specializes in Outage/Turnaround Scheduling and Project Management for the Power Generation/Chemical Processing industry.

Contact Information

If interested, please email resume to inquiry@nel-pro.com.